

Wyoming Victims Bill of Rights

W.S. 1-40-203 -- 1-40-209

- The right to be treated with compassion, respect and sensitivity within the criminal justice system.
- The right to know the whereabouts of the defendant and to be informed about the details and progress of your case.
- The right to receive restitution from offenders.
- The right to be informed about Wyoming crime victim compensation.
- The right to employ an attorney and proceed with civil action.
- The right to reasonable protection and safety and the right to know of legal recourse if threatened.
- The right to be informed about the opportunity to make a victim impact statement at sentencing and parole hearings.
- The right to be provided with the names and official phone numbers and address of the primary individuals working on your case.
- The right to be present at trial.